Erasmus+ students as intercultural ambassadors – Strengthening European values through cross-sectoral initiatives

April 1-2, 2019

Cologne - Germany

Type of event:

Conference

Working language:

English

Number of Spanish participants: 2 participants from the field of School Education.

Profile of participants: students associations, schools, students, representatives from projects with significant impact on the topic of the seminar.

Themes and goals of the event:

The TCA “Erasmus+ students as intercultural ambassadors – Strengthening European values through cross-sectoral initiatives” hosted by the NA DAAD aims to inspire different organisations, such as student and pupil organisations, youth networks, active actors in the field to multiply cross-sectoral initiatives that promote European values. Additionally, Conference aims to encourage the same actors to seek synergies between existing programs, foster exchange and increase impact. The promotion and the integration of such initiatives in the forthcoming EU Education program post 2020 will be sought.

Invited are representatives of interested organisations, students, National Erasmus+ Agencies and representatives of the EU institutions to join the discussion in Cologne.

For support initiatives and/ or students, who were involved / or are interested to be involved in similar initiatives will be welcome.
